A LIVELY TIME.

Meeting of the Chicago Stockholders of the World's Fair.

A Directory of Fort-Five Members Chosen.

Opposition to Have Seventy-Five Directors Voted Down by a Large Majority—Circumstances Seem to Indicate That the Whole Thing Was "Cut-and-Dried"—Are the Subscriptions Good?

CHICAGO, April 7.—The stockholders of the World's Fair association held a meeting Friday to elect directors, which had considerable resemblance to a riotous ward caucus. A vast crowd was in attendance. Printed tickets, containing forty names and five blank spaces to serve as a suggestion, were distributed.

Carter Harrison, ex-mayor, made a speech, declaring that there ought to be seventy-five directors so that the poor man could be represented, and was followed by one Hessian, who charged that the tickets were a star chamber scheme sprung by the South Side Street Railway company and First National bank, and claimed that all nationalities of Chicago citizens should be represented. Groans, hisses and cheers greeted his speech, and tumult reigned for half an hour.

Finally the mob subsided and a vote was taken, the proposition to limit the directory to forty-five being carried by a vote of 400,889 shares against 54,315. Every man in the hall then sent up a list of forty-five names, and they were all read by the secretary. A ballot was then taken, but it will take till some next week to count the vote. The meeting adopted a resolution standing by the promises made by the "hustling" committee in Washington. The affair opened at 3:30 a. m. and adjourned about 5 p. m.

It was lacking but a few moments of midnight when the count of the ballots was finished. With three notable exceptions, the ready-made list of forty-five names was successful. The three were Col. George R. Davis, J. W. Doane and L. Z. Leiter. Another one of the forty, John De Koven, had withdrawn before the balloting began. Much surprise was expressed at the defeat of ex-Congressman Davis, who has been quite general: credited with having taken a leading part at Washington in the work that led to Chicago's success before the house of representatives. His friends were not slow to attribute the defeat to the machinations of political enemies. Col. Davis lacked nearly 4,000 votes of reaching the minimum requisite to be elected. The forty-five directors chosen are as follows: the first thirty-six being from the list prepared before hand:

Owen F. Aldis, Samuel W. Allerton, W. T. Baker, Thomas S. Bryan, M. L. Crawford, W. H. Colvin, D. C. Gregier, J. W. Ellsworth, Stuyvesant Fish, Lyman J. Gage, H. N. Higinbotham, C. L. Hutchinson, E. T. Jeffrey, R. A. Keyes, M. M. Kirkman, H. H. Kohlsaat, E. F. Lawrence, T. J. Lefens, Cyrus H. McCormick, Andrew McNally, Joseph Medill, Robert Nelson, Potter Palmer, J. C. Peasey, F. W. Peck, E. M. Phelps, E. S. Pike, M. A. Ryerson, Charles H. Schwab, A. F. Seeger, W. E. Strong, R. A. Waller, Edwin Walker, John R. Walsh, C. C. Wheeler, Otto Young, C. H. Wacker, E. G. Keith, E. B. Butler, F. S. Winston, A. Nathan, C. T. Perkes, W. D. Kerfoot, J. J. P. O'Dell, J. V. Farwell, Jr.

Quality of the Subscriptions Questioned.

WASHINGTON April 7.—The senate committee on the world's fair was in session several hours Friday. Chairman Hiscott raised the question of the quality of the subscriptions to the $5,000,000 guarantee fund.

Senator Farwell, representing Chicago's interests on the committee, stated that Mr. Lyman Gage, chairman of the finance committee, had appeared before the world's fair committee of the house and testified that 98 per cent. of the subscriptions could be collected in cash, and he (Farwell) had asked Mr. Gage to make the same statement to Senator Hiscott, as chairman of the senate committee.

He supposed this had been done and that the statement would be satisfactory to the committee. Senator Hiscott said he could not use a statement in that way as evidence before the committee. It was finally decided to refer the investigation of the subscription to a sub-committee consisting of Senators Hiscott, Hawley, Wilson of Iowa, Gray and Daniel, to report within a week.

The Chicago Plumbers' Strike.

CHICAGO, April 7.—Friday developed little that was new in the plumbers' strike, and the most significant feature of the day being the influx of plumbers of other cities. Strikers and employers hold out with equal pertinacity, and are alike confident of victory. The plumbing business throughout the city is practically suspended.

Heavy Rains in Wisconsin.

WHITEHORN, Wis., April 7.—The heavy rains Thursday overflowed the streams in this vicinity. The flouring mill dams here and at Coral City and Elk Creek were swept out. The streams receded rapidly. Country bridges were more or less damaged.

Louisville Relief Fund.

LOUISVILLE, April 7.—The relief fund for sufferers by the tornado now amounts to about $135,000. There have been about 800 applications for relief of losses of all kinds. For loss of furniture there are 442 applications, twenty of which are not in the city.

The Oregon Railroad Sold.

SALEM, Ore., April 7.—The Oregon railroad was sold at auction under foreclosure Friday to the Southern Pacific, for $1,000,000. This formally completes the latter company's title to the property, of which it already had possession.

DISASTROUS GAS EXPLOSIONS.

Six Men Killed by a Collapsing Tunnel and Two More Fatally Burned.

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., April 7.—A special to the Press says:

A terrible accident occurred at Adams Canon, near Santa Paula, Friday morning, where the Hardison & Stewart Oil company is boring a tunnel for oil. An explosion of gas occurred in the tunnel, and a sheet of flame shot out, blowing away the building 100 feet from mouth of the tunnel. Two men were terribly burned, and one of them has since died. The names of the workmen are unknown.

A force of men were put to work to clear the tunnel, and in the afternoon at 3:45 another explosion took place, collapsing the whole tunnel and burying in the ruins five men, who are certainly dead. So far as known their names are Britton, Hardison, Taylor and Young. Hardison is brother of the head of the company.

The rescuing party at the scene of the explosion late Friday night reached Hardison, Young and White. All the three were dead, their bodies being badly torn by the explosion. The remains were taken to Santa Paula.

YELLOW JACK.

Arrived at Baltimore of an Infected Ship From Brazil—Quarantined.

BALTIMORE, April 7.—Quite a commotion was caused among shipping men Friday by the report that the American ship McCullum, Capt. O'Brien, from Rio, was detained at quarantine with yellow fever aboard. The rumor gained a good deal of credence because it could not be verified, the health department being closed. Capt. O'Brien was not allowed to come to the city by order of Dr. Heiskell, who is in charge of quarantine.

It was definitely learned later that three of the sailors had died on the passage, the first of yellow fever on Feb. 13, the other two on Feb. 21 and on March 2, respectively. Capt. O'Brien said the latter two did not die of yellow fever, and that there was no epidemic on his ship. The man who died contracted yellow fever while the ship lay at anchor at Rio. All were buried at sea. Dr. Heiskell quarantined the ship.

Mortgage Debts in Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 7.—The state tariff reform league authorized the appointment of experts in each county, charged with the duty of ascertaining the mortgage indebtedness by record examination, and the first of these reports was submitted Friday by Hon. James M. Fippen of Tipton county. This county is in the gas belt, and lies in a fertile region. His examination shows that in 1879 the unsatisfied mortgage indebtedness was $607,000. Ten years later it had increased to $802,148, and in January last it aggregated $2,257,435. The grand total indebtedness of the county from all sources is $5,422,435.

Kansas Saloons Raided.

WICHITA, Kan., April 7.—The crusade against the saloons has reached this state. Some of the members of the Women's Christian Temperance union of Kingman, Thursday applied to the court for warrants to arrest saloon keepers. The business of the court was such that time could not be given them at the moment they called. In the movement time was an important factor, and they decided to make a raid. Three of the places where it was supposed intoxicants were being sold were visited, and all liquors of suspicious flavor were carried and dumped in the street.

How the Exclusion Act is Evaded.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—A local paper which has been investigating the matter of Chinese immigration from Mexico, stated one or two small craft are almost constantly engaged in bringing Chinese from Lower California to San Diego, and landing them at night, whence they make their way to Los Angeles and other points. Several hundred Chinamen and a number of Chinese women are believed to have found their way into California by this method during the past year.

Refrigerated Beef for England.

NEW YORK, April 7.—The Herald's special from Houston, Tex., says: George Dobson, of London, agent for the Liverpool Trading company, arrived in Galveston on Thursday and entered into negotiations for fortnightly shipments of 640 tons of refrigerated beef. The port of shipment has not yet been decided upon. New Orleans is a bidder. A line of steamships will begin running July 1. Cattle men meet in Fort Worth April 10 to consider another and larger proposition.

Logan County W. Va., Feud Averted.

WHEELING, W. Va., April 7.—Seven or eight persons indicted at the last term of the Logan county circuit court for the murder of Green McCoy and Milt Hale, at Hart's Creek last December, which threatened for some time to grow into a feud equal in proportions to the Hatfield-McCoy feud, have been admitted to bail in the sum of $5,000 each.

A Burning Mine Flooded.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., April 7.—The fire in the Cameron colliery is now beyond control, and the entire mine, comprising 250 miles of galleries, will have to be flooded. Three creeks will be turned into the mine, and it is estimated that it will take sixty days to flood it, and a year to repair the damage. The loss is estimated at $100,000.

The False Christ in a State of Mind.

ROCKFORD, Ill., April 7.—Schweinfurth's latest sermon was directed against the press and reporters. He pronounced the stories published about himself and "Heaven" a tissue of daily reiterated lies and denounced reporters as lost blackguards. The city of Rockford, he said, was doomed to come to swift and fearful calamity, in which there would be such a spectacle of disaster as would horrify the world. This would be the result of the wickedness of the city, and the sneers, scoffings and revoltings with which the citizens deluged him, the Lord's anointed.

THE WORST YET.

The Crevasse in the Mississippi at Catfish Point.

Several Plantations Completely Submerged.

Many Houses Washed Away and Three Lives Lost—The Break Over a Quarter of a Mile Wide—Prospects of Another Overflow of the White River in Arkansas—Jacksonport Inundated.

NEW ORLEANS, April 7.—A dispatch from Arkansas City, Ark., Saturday morning said:

The two stremes yet occurring on the Mississippi side of the river was made early Friday morning by the breaking of the levee at Catfish Point, ten miles below Bolivar landing. The bend containing several very valuable plantations, is completely submerged. A number of cattle were drowned, but all the residents escaped. Houses are being washed away. This break will do immense damage.

Already 1,300 Feet Wide.

Advices from Catfish Point state that the break in the levee is 1,300 feet wide already, and the most disastrous that has yet occurred. Three lives were lost, a man and two children, houses swept away, furniture destroyed, and some of the finest plantations in the valley submerged.

Capt. Tollinger, of the United States service, is doing all that can be done to aid the distressed people.

Reports of distress continue to come in, but in addition to the relief boats every local packet that leaves Memphis carries down large stores of provisions, and the work of rescuing the flood-bound people goes on daily.

Along the White River, Arkansas.

NEWPORT, Ark., April 7.—The prospects for another destructive overflow were favorable Friday night. The gauge read thirty-nine feet.

The gauge at Batesville read thirty-two feet. There was enough water between here and Batesville to make two or three feet more here.

The town of Jacksonport, three miles from here, is partially under water.

MR. DEPEW ON THE SOUTH.

The Old and New Spirit—Horror of the Convict-Lease System.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Mr. Chaney M. Depew arrived here Friday evening in excellent health. In an interview with a reporter he expressed himself as delighted with the hospitality of the southern people.

"Did you see much of the new south?" the reporter asked.

"Some of the new south and a good deal of the old south. It is there still. The old stock look on the colored man as a sort of animal destitute of moral sense or responsibility, who, like a Frankenstein, becomes for that reason dangerous in proportion to his liberty and opportunities. They sincerely think that their property will be wiped out or confiscated, their homes broken up and society destroyed if the colored man's votes are counted; and they look upon northern Republicans as a species of Archists who will cheerfully co-operate in their destruction. Nine-tenths of the Democrats in the south seem to be imbued with such ideas.

"The new south has a different spirit; it believes in mines, and mills, and corner lots. It believes in attracting enterprise and capital, but the old south is a long way down the millennium of a political regeneration. The remedy is not plain, but it certainly does not lie in Federal legislation.

"One thing which more than any other has d-banced public sentiment in the south is the convict-labor system which holds in certain states. Unless Kennan's stories of Siberian horrors are absolutely true, there can be no scenes in a civilized country so terrible as in the southern convict camps. These poor wretches are leased to men who have no interest in their welfare or reformation. No one seems to care whether they are properly fed, clothed, housed, treated or cared for.

"Sometimes the contracts call for a certain number of convicts and the state furnishes them. If they can't ill the quota otherwise the most trivial offenses are made excuses for long terms of imprisonment. I have no doubt that many innocent men are serving sentences in southern convict camps that a quota might be filled."

JOHN L. AND CORBETT.

Sullivan Will Fight the Man Who Defected Kitzrin.

BOSTON, April 7.—John L. Sullivan was seen Friday night with regard to the published report that J. M. Corbett, the San Francisco heavy-weight was anxious to try his skill against the champion. "I'm more than ready to meet Corbett," said Sullivan, "but on only one condition. If we are to box four rounds I'll contract to put him to sleep in that time. If I succeed I am to get $1,0

ROSSER & McCARTHY,

MONDAY, APRIL 7, 1890.

The Republicans of Dubuque, Iowa, a few days since endorsed the Democratic county ticket. The result of the election in that State last fall indicated that a good many members of the g. o. p. not only endorsed the Democrats, but voted for them. Iowa will soon be all right.

The Legislature should not hesitate to act on the Governor's advice, and repeal the bill giving the city authorities of Newport power to regulate the observance of Sunday in their municipality. The State law on this point is the right thing, and the Newport bill is a step in the wrong direction.

SENATOR BECK tells the New York Star that the report that he intends resigning is entirely without foundation. He feels that his health is gradually improving and hopes to live and work out his term. He is constantly in consultation with his colleagues on all important matters and keeps close track of the public business.

An exchange says Major McKinley and his Republican associates ran against a tough subject when they "tackled" hides in fixing up the tariff bill. The Republican shoe manufacturers and leather men of the East think McKinley had better be harnessed and reined in, if the leaders expect to save their party from defeat.

The Democratic candidate for Governor of Rhode Island polled more votes at the late election than the Republican nominee, but he didn't get a majority over all his opponents. In most every State in the Union the man receiving the highest number of votes wins, but not so in "Little Rhody." The Legislature of that State will now choose the Governor, and the prospect is that a Republican will get the position.

The Republican is trying to make it appear that the objection to the election clause in the proposed new city charter comes mainly from the "boodlers" and the "bummers." The remonstrance that we saw had the names of such excellent citizens at Mr. N. Cooper, Mr. H. C. Barkley, Mr. C. H. White, Dr. Moores, Mr. Dan Perrine and Mr. W. B. Mathews. The fact of the matter is that fully nine-tenths of the citizens are opposed to having the election of most of the city officers taken out of the hands of the people and given over to cliques and rings.

John DeWitt Miller to Lecture Here.

We take pleasure in announcing that John DeWitt Miller, of Philadelphia, who is well and favorably known to the lecture-going people in America, has accepted an invitation to lecture at the High School May 1st. Subject: "The Uses of Ugliness." A special dispatch from Chautauqua, N. Y., to the Buffalo Courier says: "The name of John DeWitt Miller gave us the grandest audience we ever saw at Chautauqua. Auditorium and gallery were filled and not less than one thousand people were standing outside. Mr. Miller's voice is equal to the best, if not the best, ever heard upon this platform. His enunciation is as distinct as the tones of an organ. The characteristics of his lecture were wealth of thought, brilliance of illustration, fitness of anecdote and force of delivery."

The saloon people won in the election at Augusta Saturday. J. H. Boude was chosen Mayor.

THE K. C. AGAIN.

This Time It Is Sold—Other Items of Interest About the Railroads.

Cincinnati Enquirer announced a few days ago that the Kentucky Central and Elizabethtown, Lexington & Big Sandy would be consolidated May 1; that the K. C. was on top in the deal and that H. E. Huntington would probably be General Manager of the system. Last Saturday there was another announcement, but this time the Enquirer has the road sold. It says: "The Brice-Thomas syndicate Friday concluded negotiations by which it is to obtain possession of the Kentucky Central Road. This deal knocks out the proposed consolidation of the Kentucky Central and E. L. & B. S. and the Chesapeake, Ohio and South-western, as announced a few days ago. The terms have been agreed upon by C. P. Huntington and the Brice-Thomas people, and the papers will be signed within the next few days. It has been known for a long time that Mr. Huntington was willing to sell the Kentucky Central, and it was thought that the East Tennessee people would purchase the property before the E. T. V. and G. Erlanger deal developed; but after they concluded to buy the Erlanger property it was supposed they wouldn't want the Kentucky Central, but they do, and are going to take it."

The Commercial Gazette stated yesterday, however, that the road has not been sold, and published an interview with Senator Brice to that effect. Mr. Brice said he could not predict the future of the road, but there are no present plans concerning it.

The earnings of the Chesapeake and Ohio Road for the month of March show an increase of $130,659.79 over those for the corresponding month of last year. The figures are:

1889.....488,106.81

Increase.....$130,585.97

It is said there have been thirty two official changes on the C. & O. within the past four months. In most cases young railroad men have been given the place of old-timers who were not thought to be up with the times.

J. T. Harahan, late General Manager of the Chesapeake and Ohio Road has accepted the position of General Manager of the Louisville, New Orleans and Texas Road, with headquarters at Memphis.

A local C. & O. freight train left South Portsmouth with 62 cars one day last week. Two west-bound through freights over the same road last week had fifty cars each.

French & Co.'s Show Coming.

Attention is called to an advertisement of the show aggregation which will exhibit in Maysville on Monday, April 21. In regard to the same we find in the New Orleans Picayune of March 23d, the following very complimentary notice: "The vast tent of French's circus was packed from the ring edge to the top seats with an appreciative audience which had assembled to witness the grand performance tendered by French & Co.'s Mammoth Circus and Menagerie as a benefit to the New Orleans Lodge of Elks. Every year the Elks receive a benefit and the performance is generally given in a theatre or hall, but Mr. French being a brother Elk, and a kindly-disposed one at that, tendered his talented performers—which made a grand success of the evening. Ed Curtis had for the occasion imported a basso profundo voice, which he used with startling effect in announcing the performers. Messrs. John Davenport and Jesse Brown acted as ringmasters and Mr. W. H. Quinnette as clown was inimitable and kept his audience in constant laughter, with his quaint sayings and comic songs. Mr. Chas. Howitt, with his clown song 'Bold McIntyre,' brought down the house. There was the usual bareback riding, trapeze performance, juggling and, in fact, all the clever acts which tend to make a circus a real circus. Cleopatra, the trained elephant, did some clever tricks and was ably managed by her trainer, Mr. Henry Reed. Petit and McVey thrilled the audience with daring flying trapeze acts. Miss Inez Palmer displayed some wonderful molar tenacity in her iron jaw act, and Mr. John Ames twisted and intertwined himself several times in his challenge contortion act. John Davenport, Jr., bounded successfully in his jockey act and also did some good bareback riding. The rest of the company were up to the standard and did very well, and the audience showed their appreciation by frequent demonstrations of applause. The Elks should feel proud of the cordial patronage given them and the French Company are conscious of having done the hand-some thing."

Whether on pleasure bent or business, should take on every trip a bottle of Syrup of Figs, as it acts most pleasantly and effectively on the kidneys, liver and bowels, preventing fevers, headaches and other forms of sickness. For sale in 50c. and $1 bottles by all leading druggists.

The services at St. Patrick's Church yesterday were beautiful and impressive. All the altars were tastefully dressed with flowers and a number of candles were lighted on each of them. At the 10 a. m. mass Rev. Father Brinkmeyer delivered a short instruction appropriate to the occasion and the choir rendered their part in the usual good manner.

MISS LILLIE B. CROSBY, aged fourteen, died yesterday morning at 2 o'clock at the home of her mother, Mrs. Octavia C. Crosby, corner of Third and Bridge streets. The deceased had been a sufferer for some time from a complication of diseases. The remains were buried this morning at 10 o'clock after funeral services conducted by Rev. J. M. Evans.

The retreat, conducted by Rev. Father Brinkmeyer at the Academy of the Visitation during the last three days of the past week, closed Saturday night with most gratifying results. At the close of the retreat Miss Lillie Deanquin was baptized by Father Brinkmeyer and received her first Holy Communion Sunday morning, in the chapel of the Academy. This makes the second young lady baptized in the Catholic Church in the past week, the other being Miss Frankie Hord, of Helena, a most talented and refined young lady.

Ike McAlister's Mishap

Ike McAlister, colored, a son of the late Bob McAlister, came near losing his life about one o'clock last Saturday afternoon. Yard engine No. 26 was taking some cars to the side track in the West End when McAlister attempted to board the train at the Bridge street crossing. He missed his footing and was struck by the cars. He received a compound fracture of the right leg just above the ankle joint, and his left leg was badly bruised. Dr. Owens dressed the wounds and set the broken bones.

Another Fire at Mt. Olivet.
Mr. Wolf's store at Mt. Olivet was discovered on fire at 8 o'clock yesterday morning, and as there was a stiff breeze blowing the county seat of Robertson was threatened by another disastrous conflagration for awhile. The citizens responded promptly to the alarm, however, and by good work succeeded in extinguishing the flames before much damage was done.

Mr. Wolf's loss on stock is about $500. The building belonged to John Woodward, who, with his family, occupied the second story. The fire caught from the fuel.

The Divine Sarah in Her Passion Play.

PARIS, April 7.—M. Lamoune Friday night gave a concert, at which there was a very crowded attendance. During the entertainment, Mme. Bernhardt, dressed in a clinging white robe, recited portions of the Passion play which she has recently been studying. She was assisted by Garnier and Bremon, and was frequently applauded, but toward the end the audience became impatient and noisy, and the author of the play, M. Harancourt, was obliged to make an appeal to them before they would allow the performance to proceed.

JOHN BULL'S POLICY

Touching African Affairs—Letter of Explorer Sir Samuel White Baker.

LONDON, April 7.—Sir Samuel White Baker, the English explorer in a letter just published indicts the recent policy of the government touching African affairs, which, he says, has resulted in the loss of all positions which had been gained through the enterprise of individuals. Commenting upon Emin Pasha's recent course he says it is only natural that Emin should join the German government expedition which he predicts will not imitate the fatal example of England by advancing only to retreat.

The writer then shows how the Germans will soon regain the equatorial province and how they will eventually secure control of the White Nile at Gondokoro, while Italy will become master of the situation by the possession of Barber and Kassala. Then, he says, Khar-toum will naturally fall.

With regard to the value of the equatorial province in a commercial sense, he says, that it is nil, the products being worth ten times less than the cost of transportation, while the legitimate purchase of ivory is impossible.

Two Gorilla Babies.

The attachés of the zoo were in a flutter Friday over the birth of twins to the female gorilla, whose oblations of bad temper are a constant menace to those who are compelled to attend her. The chief importance which attaches to the arrival of these hideous babies is the fact that they are the first of their species ever born in England.

Mammoth Army Balloon.

BERLIN, April 7.—Edward Dann, of the United States army, is making a sensation here by an exhibit of a monster balloon for war purposes. The balloon is called the Bismarck. Emin's Silence.

CAIRO, April 7.—Emin has not written a single line to Stanley or Parko since the two explorers arrived at Bagamoyo. Stanley expresses regret and surprise that Emin did not come to Cairo and pay his respects to the khedive and supposes that his reason was that he was unable from his long absence in interior of Africa to adapt himself to civilized life.

Serious Trouble Feared in Rome.

ROME, April 7.—The announced intention of the unemployed workingmen of Rome to join in procession and march through the principal thoroughfares on April 13, greatly disturbs the government already harassed by virtual bankruptcy and exasperating foreign complications. Premier Crispi has held several conferences with his colleagues on the subject, and as a result has ordered that the military suppress the demonstration. The leaders of the movement are undaunted, however, and declare that they will parade, though the entire Italian army oppose them.

A Battle in the Near Future.

PARIS, April 7.—M. Edeenne, the colonial minister, says that the French troops already in Dahomey are strong enough to overcome the native forces, and that there exists no necessity for their re-enforcement. An attack, he stated, would shortly be made upon Whydah by the French troops. Whydah is the coast town of Dahomey where the Dahomians secure their war munitions.

Russia Wants More Money from Turkey.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 7.—Russia has notified Turkey that the sum paid on account of the arrears of war indemnity, and the securities given for the payment thereof, are not sufficient, and that, therefore, if the new loan which Turkey proposes to raise is subscribed for, she will demand priority for the payment of this claim before the money is devoted to other purposes.
